Mrs. V. R. Bond Reports $304.30 Collected For Infantile Paralysis Fund

As the campaign for funds for the fight on infantile paralysis came to a close Wednesday, January 31, in the Hamlin community, Mrs. V. R. Bond, chairman, reported that approximately $304.30 had been collected in the March of Dimes and through the American Legion-Auxiliary Forty-two Party and auction of cakes, pies, etc.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Bond was assisted by the Junior Class of Hamlin High School, and by pupils of the Elementary School in the Harvest of Dimes to the amount of more than $230.00; and in the final check-up after expenses were paid, they had about $223.55. Then with about $80.75 from the Legion folks, she had the nice sum of $304.30 to send to Anson, where fifty per cent will remain as a local fund to help any needy case of paralysis in this county. Good work, Mrs. Bond and assistants. Congratulations from all of US to all of YOU.

FERGUSON THEATER COLLECTS NICE SUM FOR PARALYSIS

Internal Revenue Man Coming Friday, Feb. 9

According to Ellis Campbell, Jr., Chief of the Abilene Division, Deputy Collector Herbert W. Patterson, of the Abilene office of Collector of Internal Revenue, will be in Hamlin on February 9, to assist taxpayers in filing and preparing 1944 income tax returns. Mr. Patterson will be located at the City Hall from 8:30 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. Due to the large number of returns that will have to be filed for 1944, the Collector of Internal Revenue has been unable to assign more than one deputy for one day.

Mr. Patterson will not have sufficient time to prepare schedules for depreciation or any other complicated schedule, Mr. Campbell said. He will attempt to assist just as many

Former Hamlin Boy Is Operations Officer At New Orleans

LT. CMDR. EDGAR R. BULL

Recently information came that another Hamlin boy, now Lt. Commander Edgar R. Bull, a nephew of Mrs. E. R. Burns of Hamlin, had been made combined executive-operations officer of the Transportation Corps Service school at New Orleans. This young officer is a native of Hamlin, but his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bull, reside at Pecos, Texas.

Lt. Cmdr. Bull's private life, just previous to going into the Navy service, prepared him in many ways for his present duties. He was employed by a big machinery company in San Antonio, and later, before Pearl Harbor, he was employed by the federal government as a diesel engineer in Panama, where he was stationed from November 1942 until July 1943. He entered the armed services as a lieutenant shortly after his return to the United States.

His wife is the former Juanita Adams, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lee Adams of the Dovie community. She makes her home with her husband in New Orleans.

as it is possible, and those having deductions for depreciation should have the depreciation schedules made up and ready to submit with information as to the income to be reported.

The 1944 Revenue Act has made several changes in regard to requirements for filing a return, personal exemption, credits for dependents, normal tax credit, surtax credit, adjusted gross income and other items which the taxpayer may desire to do.

Mr. Patterson will not have sufficient time to prepare schedules for depreciation or any other complicated schedule, Mr. Campbell said. He will attempt to assist just as many

200 Jones County Boys In 4-H Clubs

Twelve Boys' 4-H Clubs have been organized in Jones County with a membership of two hundred boys. Boys' 4-H Clubs were organized at the following places: Avoca, 15; New Hope, 12; Lueders, 48; Noodle, 36; Hodges, 18; Hamlin, 12; Anson, 24; Hawley, 25; Neinda, 10. Lueders, Noodle, and Hawley have both a Junior and a Senior Club.

The following demonstrations will be conducted by the 4-H boys: Gardens, 64; Beef Calves, 44; Dairy Heifers, 30; Chicks, 475; Hens, 210; Feeder Pigs, 40; Gilt and Sows, 28 head; Cotton, 30 acres; Beef Cows, seven head; and Dairy Cows, 14 head.

All twelve clubs were met in January.

Boys Learn About Cattle Grubs

Cattle grub control was discussed in January meetings. Special emphasis were placed on the life cycle of the heel fly and the methods of controlling the grub. The growth of the grub was followed from the time it hatches on the hair near the hoof, until it emerges through the hole in the backs of animals developing into a fly.

It was pointed out to the club members that cattle grubs do the following damage.

1. The best part of the leather is ruined by the holes which the grubs make in the hide.

2. Fifteen per cent more feed is required for animals on feed if heavily infested with grubs.

3. Around twenty-five per cent reduction in milk flow may be expected if animals are heavily infested with cattle grubs.

The control measures were carefully pointed out and demonstrated to club members. The substances used for the demonstrations were wettable sulphur and derris or cube powder. These powders were mixed in equal proportion. The backs of the animals were sprinkled with the powder and worked down next to the animals' hide. It was further pointed out that the treatment was to kill the grub, to prevent the fly which has the ability of lodging around five hundred eggs and that treatment should be practiced each month from October through February. Other methods of control were also discussed but were not demonstrated to the boys.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gardner came near to having a 100 per cent perfect family reunion, when all their children were with them except one daughter, Miss Dorothy who is in Washington, D. C.

The feature that made the occasion especially happy was the fact that three soldier boys were again with them. Corporal Edward was up on a short furlough from Camp Swift.

Tech. Sgt. Harry had just come in from the Aleutians and Camp Swift, and Pfc. Robert had a short pass while enroute to his new post at Amarillo. Miss Frances Nell Gardner came over from McMurry College for the day, and with Miss Kathryn, a Hamlin teacher, the circle was almost complete. Congratulations, in many ways, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner.

—o—

A message was received by Editor and Mrs. Bowen Pope early Tuesday morning that they now have a granddaughter in Midland, born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hinkle in that city at 10:45 P. M. Monday, January 29. In due time the Herald will take pride in revealing the young lady's name.

—o—

Mrs. Ellen Higgs returned Sunday from Benson, Ariz., where she spent a month with her sister, Mrs. L. A. Bonner, and husband and their little daughter who arrived January 2. Mrs. Bonner is the former Mary Stewart, daughter of Mrs. N. E. Stewart of Hamlin.

—o—

Mrs. L. S. Magee returned Monday from Harlingen, where she was called because of the serious illness of her little grandson, Bobby White, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. White. She reports Bobby's condition much improved.

—o—

Bob Jack Low, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Low of Monahans, a former Hamlin boy, sends the Herald a graduation announcement from North Texas State Teachers College, Denton. His graduation took place January 26. Congratulations, young fellow.

Parents Hear How Son Spent Christmas

Anything from anybody concerned with a soldier boy on the battle fronts is always welcomed by parents. Below, we reproduce a Christmas letter from a Chaplain.

"Mrs. B. E. Jones

"Rt. 3, Hamlin, Texas

"Dear Mrs. Jones:

"I felt I simply couldn't let the Christmas Season get too far behind us without writing to you loved ones back home to tell you something about our Christmas in Italy.

"Last year we went about the streets singing Christmas Carols and passing out candy to the children. However, this year we had an opportunity to plan a little more and as a result the men had saved candy from their rations and some that you had sent over, so that we had several hundred pounds of candy to give to the children.

"One party was held at a Protestant Church in the village near to us. It was quite similar to the programs we have back home in the churches on Christmas Eve. Little children sang songs and recited verses. All of us enjoyed it immensely.

This may sound strange and almost foolish to you, but it really is amazing how a little two and a half year old baby can speak Italian! Each child at this party received enough candy so that I am positive their mothers are going to have trouble with distressed 'tummies.' After the program the soldiers were served coffee, sandwiches, and cookies prepared by the congregation for them.

Everyone seemed to have a grand time. As was the case last winter, 'Sunny Italy' was shedding plenty of tears. It was cloudy, cold, and raining. However, the brightness of the Christmas Spirit prevailing overcame all of that very easily.

"Another party was held for a small group of orphaned children and they received packages of candy that made them very happy.

"On Christmas Day, Services were held so that all men had an opportunity to attend. As usual, after services the men were given sumptuous meal including turkey, potatoes and gravy, vegetables, pie, coffee, and all the trimmings. The credit for this goes to our soldiers operating our mess halls, many of whom worked most of the night in order to give us the best meal they could produce.

"Your son, Jeff, mentioned that he would like to have you receive this letter and we are more than happy to send it to you so that you will know that we did our best to bring Christmas of Home to some of these people and in so doing, it made us all feel very close to you.

"Sincerely,

"John David Larsen,
"Chaplain (Capt.), USA."

Letter From Captain Of Deceased Soldier

CPL. WILBURN FAULKENBERRY
(Killed in Action, Oct. 17, 1944)

Below, we reproduce a letter recently received by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Faulkenberry, Hamlin, Rt. 1, that was addressed to them in New Guinea, on Nov. 22, 1944.

"Dear Mrs. Faulkenberry,

"By this time you have heard that on October 17th your son died of injuries when a plane crashed into his gun position. I wish you to know that in the time of your great loss that all members of this battery join you in your sorrow.

"It is not in my power to praise Corporal Faulkenberry. The fact that he was a credit to the uniform he wore is itself the highest praise. The pride, Mrs. Faulkenberry, which you must ever have had in him was justified to the fullest extent.

"I was with him from the crash, until his death eight hours later. He was conscious part of the time, but suffered no pain, and was unaware of the seriousness of his injuries. He asked repeatedly about the other members of the section who were in the crash, and throughout was more concerned with their safety than his own.

"Knowing as I do that this is the second tragic blow you have suffered in the past year, I hope only that his own fortitude may be a source of strength to you. I trust, moreover, that you will immediately make arrangements for the benefits to which you are entitled and I shall be greatly honored if in this or any other matter, I can be of some assistance to you.

"All of us who lived with Corporal Faulkenberry and are grateful for the privilege of having served with

FROM REPORTS, there seems to be a very strong German Oder in East Germany, but the Russians do not mind it. By the time warm spring days come, it will be proper to spell it "Dder."

—PARADING artillery heroes before munition workers to impress the shell-makers with the importance of doing more work is the latest trick. Seems like it is about time to show some of the "lingering workers" the battle line foxholes.

—IT IS almost alarming how some Americans jump at silly things about the President's family. The dog angle has given many people a grand excuse to boil over. Note the many hot, unreasonable letters published in some of the big, daily papers, showing how silly the writers are to jump and fume at every unreasonable and unsubstantiated report. Yes, somebody did make a blunder, but don't fasten everything on the president or his family.

—WONDER how it feels in the toughened German heart to see the distant flashes of Uncle Joe Stalin's thunder-bugs over the horizon? Wonder how the hundreds of thousands of German families feel now that the shoe is pinching their own foot, out there on the road-side, in the cold of winter's ice and misery, trying to hide away from the Russians? War does not pay those who start it, and maybe 70 years from now the old German man or woman will remember running in the cold from the Russians, while the English and Americans pushed into the Rhine-land. They can't forget this time.

—ABOUT Wallace: This is our reply. We estimate Henry Wallace as being one of our greatest and most far-seeing statesmen and humanitarians. He should rank with Jennings Bryan, Woodrow Wilson, Wendell Willkie, and Franklin Roosevelt. He has already done more for humanity than Jesse Jones has done in all of his more than 70 years. Sure, Wallace helped elect Roosevelt the fourth time. Who didn't? Nobody wants to take any glory from Jones; he has proved he is the greatest dollar-juggler in this age. Plenty of fellows have gotten rich through the said dollar-juggling, and maybe if Wallace gets a chance he will cut some of it out. Yes, sir, we are for Wallace.

him, beg you to allow us to be with you in your grief and to offer to yourself and Mr. Faulkenberry our deepest sympathy.

"Sincerely yours,

"G. Polhemus, Capt., CAC,
"D Battery, 487th AAA Bn.
"APO 704."

(The parents received the Purple Heart which was awarded posthumously to their son, Corporal Wilburn Faulkenberry, on January 15, 1945.)

Sylvester Boy Will Help Land Them*(SPECIAL NEWS RELEASE)

Earl J Holcomb, a resident of Sylvester, whose wife and two children, Earline and Kenneth, live on Rural Route 1, Sylvester, has been chosen by the Navy for duty aboard an LSM (Landing Ship, Medium).

Now stationed at the Amphibious Training Base in Little Creek, Va., Holcomb is preparing for duty in the Pacific on one of the new fast tank carriers.

The vessel on which Holcomb will serve was especially developed for landing war machines and equipment onto Pacific islands, and LSMs passed their first test in actual combat when they helped land General MacArthur's army on the shores of Leyte. Under the cover of heavy warships and their own curtains of anti-aircraft fire, the fast and powerful LSMs hit the Jap-held beaches and lowered their landing ramps for their cargoes of tanks and trucks to swarm ashore.

When Holcomb completes his training, he and his crew will take over a new LSM and sail to join their sister ships in the Pacific area.

Holcomb was employed at a local meat market concern before he joined the Navy in December, 1943. He is a former student of Sylvester High School.

Since his enlistment, he has had 14 months' combat duty in the Pacific war zones and has taken part in several of the invasions of Nip-held islands.

WE CAN NOW SAY
LIEUTENANT J. R. ELLIOTT

The subject of this story is what we shall call "Our Boy." It was a great feeling of satisfaction to get an announcement from the Lubbock Army Air Field, showing that Jefferson R. Elliott, Jr. was graduating as a Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps, on February 1, 1945.

You see, this Hamlin boy grew up here, graduated from the Hamlin High School, worked for a long time before he graduated, in the Herald Office, every Thursday afternoon and often far into the night on that "press day." We learned to appreciate and to love him for his sterling worth, "stickability," determination, and "keep on" spirit, always uncomplainingly. At first when he worked for the Herald, we did not know what faced him as he would cheerfully say, "It's cold and wet but I'll make it." We thought he had only a few blocks to go to his home. But later, we found it was out east of town, south of the cemetery. But he walked or "biked" his way out home in wet and cold and no complaints. He valued each dime he made and saved to help his sister through her senior year (which we are sure became golden thoughts in his mind because of her untimely death in later years). Yes, this boy had the stuff to make good, and above all, he had appreciation.

He often, mid the darkening clouds of war, said, "I'll make 'em a paratrooper," and that was what he asked for when he enlisted. His training was hard and tough, but he took it up and down, swinging or tumbling, or jumping, but he finally failed in the test. They put him in the infantry, and ere long, he was sailing out into the unknown, and about then the Japs hit Dutch Harbor in the Aleutians. His ship hid for days in a protected bay, and finally they landed at Atka or some other island up in the north. There he was tested again in the wet, the cold, the mud and peat bogs and long winter nights, which may have reminded him of hikes home from the Herald office. After many months he got a chance to ask for a transfer to the air corps.

He made it, he got to come home, he got married, he entered the air training, and he made it. He was sent to an advanced school; he made it. He was sent to the Lubbock Field and he made it. So we believed all along that he would make it. He did. He is now a happily married man, a father of a son, and a lieutenant. He has come a long way since he walked down the aisle of the high school with that square cap on. Sure, J. R., Congratulations. Keep on keeping UP. But, J. R., you will always be our "freckled faced boy."

One day this week Ye Editor saw a bunch of soldier boys with their heads together down on the street and we just went up and butted into them with a handshake and a hug for all of them at the same time. That "squad" represented almost the four corners of the earth... and were they happy? Back at home after ever so long, after ever so many hardships, after all the dangers and horrors of the battle fronts. They were Corporal Cecil Terrell who arrived in Hamlin last week after spending 294 months in the areas adjacent to the Mediterranean Sea. Cecil is a member of the 52nd Fighter Group. He will leave about Feb. 5 for California, after visiting his aunt, Miss Lula Fletcher.

Two of the boys were from the Aleutians: Sgt. Edward T. Nail, who arrived home January 18, after being in the icy islands for 18 months. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Nail, and a brother of Archie Nail who lost his life in Germany in December, 1944. Sgt. Nail will be at home about 21 days and then will report to Camp Swift, Texas.

The other Aleutian soldier in the "squad" was Tech. Sgt. Harry Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gardner. Harry got home Jan. 23 and he also will report to Camp Swift after 21 days at home.

Then there was that Neinda soldier, Tech. Sgt. Tom L. Scarborough representing many islands of the SW Pacific, where he had spent 34 months. He arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Scarborough last Friday night. Tom still has that smile in spite of what he has seen and gone through in the jungles of the long list of islands where he went to push out the Japs. He has 21 days at home and then reports to Hot Springs, Ark. Sgt. Tom will complete four years in the service in March.

Some of these days there will be a big "squad" of returned soldiers on Hamlin's streets, and when they come home, the best soldiers of the world, let's throw a real welcoming party for them. Nothing we old guys at home can do will be enough to express our appreciation and admiration for them. One thing we are glad to note about the war-front soldiers back home, is that they generally look well-cared for, well, and happy.

Pfc. Lloyd Andress came up from Camp Bowie Monday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Andress, before they move to Brownfield. He says that the past 30 days they have been playing on the range with some big howitzers, the kind that drives the enemy back. Lloyd lacks only four months marking up four years in service. He spent two years in the Aleutians, and his left arm and breast are pretty well "striped."

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Master Magician Coming Soon

Announcement has been made that Birch, America's foremost magician, with his company of assisting artists will play an engagement in this city on Tuesday, February 13, at Hamlin High School auditorium, sponsored by the Hamlin Lions Club.

The Birch show is the largest magic production now on tour in this country. Equipment, scenery and effects in excess of $25,000 are carried and will be seen at the local performance.

Slicing a beautiful girl into four parts, shooting a live canary into a burning light bulb, causing a live pony to vanish in mid-air, and many other startling mysteries will be presented by this master magician and company in a magic pot-pourri of thrills and fun.

The current tour is Birch's twentieth annual one, and his attractive personality makes him one of the most pleasing entertainers the magic world has ever produced. Thurston publicly declared that Birch is the only magician sufficiently talented to be picked to "fill his shoes."

Heading the Birch staff of assisting artists is Mabel Sperry, hailed by critics as the world's greatest girl xylophonist. Miss Sperry charms music lovers everywhere with brilliant solos on her special built Marimba Xylophone.

Tickets are at popular prices, 25c and 55c, Matinee; and 55c and $1.10 for the evening performance. "Get your tickets early."

HOMECHOOL

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that DOETH the WILL of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name do many mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Matt. 7:21-23.

"Wherefore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is." Eph. 5:17.

From these passages we see how imperative it is that we do the will of God. Before we can do it, we must understand it. Briefly, we give some suggestions to aid us in understanding the Bible which contains God's will to man.

I. On opening any book in the Sacred Scriptures, consider first the historical circumstances of the book. These are the order, the title, the author, the date, the place, and the occasion for it.

II. In examining the contents of any book, as respects precepts, promises, exhortations, etc., observe who it is that speaks, and under what dispensation he officiates. Is he a Patriarch, a Jew, or a Christian? Consider also the persons addressed—their prejudices, character, and religious relations. Are they Jews or Christians—believers or unbelievers—approved or disapproved? This rule is essential to the proper application of every command, promise, threatening, admonition, or exhortation, in the Old Testament or New.

III. To understand the meaning of what is commanded, promised, taught, etc., the same rules of language or laws of interpretation which are applied to the language of other books, are to be applied to the language of the Bible.

IV. Common usage, which can only be ascertained by testimony (i. e. the Dictionary) must always decide the meaning of any word which has but one signification; but when words have more meanings than one, whether literal or figurative, the scope, the context, or parallel passages must decide the meaning.

V. In the interpretation of symbols, types, allegories, and parables, this rule is supreme: Ascertain the point to be illustrated; for comparison is never to be extended beyond that point—to all the attributes, qualities, or circumstances of the symbol, type, allegory, or parable.

VI. For the salutary and sanctifying intelligence of the Word of God, the following rule is indispensable: WE MUST COME WITHIN THE UNDERSTANDING DISTANCE.

There is a distance which is properly called the speaking distance, or the hearing distance, beyond which the voice reaches not and the ear hears not. To hear another, we must come within that circle which the voice audibly fills.

Now we may with propriety say, that as it respects God, there is an understanding distance. All beyond that distance cannot understand God; all within it can easily understand Him in all matters of piety and morality. God himself is the centre of that circle and humility is its circumference.

The wisdom of God is as evident in adapting the light of the Sun of Righteousness to our spiritual vision, as in adjusting the light of day to our eyes. The light reaches us without an effort of our own; but we must open our eyes; and if our eyes be sound we enjoy the natural light of heaven. Every one then, who opens the Book of God with one aim, with one ardent desire, intent only to know the will of God—to such a person, the knowledge of God is easy; for the Bible is framed to illuminate such, and only such, with the salutary knowledge of things spiritual and divine.

"If any man WILLETH to do his will, he shall KNOW of the teaching, whether is is of God, or whether I speak from myself." John 7:17.

"Come with us and we will do thee Good."

Darden Dashes:

The Bulldog Blaze is getting most of the publicity these days—perhaps a lot of it is due to Republican and Texas Regulars propaganda. W. Lee is hollering his head off, but did you ever stop to think that one of O'Dan's sons got three chances at officers' training school when other American boys get only one chance?

If they fail to make the grade the first time—then that is all. But not so with Pappy's son. He got three chances. Think that over, neighbor.

The Gallup poll shows that 50% of the American people gambled in some form or other last year. Games included were: horse racing, football, base ball, bridge, poker, dice, etc. He failed to include farming.
